

License to Use Form - John Lansdown Prize Competition – 2007

LICENCE TO USE

1. Non-exclusive Usage Rights in respect of the contribution are hereby assigned to the European Association for Computer Graphics ("Eurographics"). These non-exclusive rights shall have effect from the date of submission of the contribution to the John Lansdown Prize competition.
2. Eurographics shall have the right to use, without payment of any fee or any further reference to the author, extracts from the work for publicising the John Lansdown Prize competition. This may include reproductions of the extract in any form or media.
3. Eurographics acknowledges the right of the author to retain copyright in and to make use of the contribution without reference to any person and without payment of any fee.
4. The author also reserves the following:
 - o All proprietary rights -- including patent rights.
 - o The right to grant or refuse permission to third parties to use all or part of the contribution.
5. Eurographics should give acknowledgment to the authors of the contribution in the following form: [author to specify]

Signed:

(for Eurographics)

(authors)

Date: